NORTH METRO CHURCH

NMC SERMON SERIES CONTENT

“100” SERIES OVERVIEW:

This is a 5 week series called “After Further Review”, where we will examine Jesus’ most famous sermon and evaluate our own responses along the way. We often find ourselves moving through life with priorities out of order, direction blurred, and assumptions about how life should turn out. Jesus was the master at challenging his disciples to live with a fresh start and a new focus. The Sermon on the Mount stands as a message that is countercultural to the world—a message where losing becomes our gain, weakness becomes our strength, love becomes our currency, and people become our investment. As followers of Jesus, how are we each doing in these areas? Think about the journey of faith like a football game...how many times would a referee look at our lives and throw out a yellow flag? Stay tuned...

"AFTER FURTHER REVIEW" WEEK 3

Icebreakers:

Other than Christ, who do you look up to as an example of a forgiving person?

Do you find it easier to ask for forgiveness or to forgive someone?

Discussion Questions:

Read Matthew 5:38-39

What are some ways to avoid getting into conflict with others (Read Rom 12:18 and 1Pet 4:8)?

- Think of a time when someone hurt you.
- How would you describe that person?
- Is it ever right to hurt them back?
- Are there times when it is better to accept the injury rather than strike back (Read 1Cor 6:7 and Heb 10:32-34)?

After Further Review, are you someone who “turns the other cheek?”

How would living a life of “turning the other cheek” bless your life and you make a difference in this life?
