NMC SERMON SERIES CONTENT

“After Amen” SERIES OVERVIEW:

Though none of us pray enough, we all pray some. We pour out our prayers, then say “amen.” And we wait. So what do we do while we are waiting for God to answer our prayers? This series offers a new way to help you connect with God and get answers while you wait. By exploring the ministry of Jesus, you will encounter a variety of people who come to Jesus in need but receive different responses. As you read, discover the powerful steps of faith you can take after saying “amen.”

WEEK 3

---

Daniel's Main Points:

Joshua 4:1-7, 19-24, Luke 22:7-8, 14-20

Responses to unanswered prayers:

1. Throw a fit
2. Play the Blame Game
3. Remember

Remember who God is and what He has done.

What can you do REMEMBER who God is and what He has done?

Discussion Questions:

What prompts do you use most often to give you reminders? (Examples: post-it notes, alarm clock, calendar, phone apps, signs, etc)

What most challenged or inspired you from Sunday's message?

Read Joshua 4:1-9.

Why was it important for Israel to remember this moment? (See Joshua 4:24)?

God used stones as both a reminder of His faithfulness and to inspire future obedience. What people, places, or events has God used to remind you of His faithfulness?

Who or what has God used to prompt you toward obedience?

Read Judges 2:8-11. What does this passage say about the generations after Joshua died?

One commentator said: "The first generation believed it, the second generation assumed it; third generation forgot it."

What are some helpful reminders we can setup today to inspire future obedience in our life and future generations?

What can you do to remember who God is and what He has done?

Who do you need to pass your story on to?

Looking back at this week's teaching and study, is there one thing you'd especially like to remember this week?
