NMC SERMON SERIES CONTENT

“Christmas Carols”

SERIES OVERVIEW:

At Christmas, millions of people proclaim the Good News of Jesus through the singing of Christmas carols, and they may not even realize it. And in this season, where these songs are on our busy minds, heavy hearts, and tired lips, we can point people to the hope we have in a rich and compelling way.

“WHAT CHILD IS THIS”

---

Discussion Questions:

What is your favorite Christmas song, memory or tradition (and why)?

If someone asked you “What Child is this” (in reference to who Jesus is), what would you say?

What do the following verses say about who Jesus is?

Isaiah 7:14, John 1:1, John 1:14, John 14:9

In Daniel’s message, he quoted a commentator who said:

“Our propensity is to define God ourselves rather than to receive Him as He is...and the byproduct is that we miss out.”

Daniel mentioned a few examples where his thoughts about Pimento Cheese and his college professor were off and how it caused him to “miss out” (until his thoughts changed). What are some of your examples of things you have “missed out” on because of your incorrect thinking of something or someone?

Why is it important to let God Word define who He is rather than allowing our circumstances and feeling tell us who He is?

Read Isaiah 9:6-7. According to this passage, who does God say He is?

God defines Himself as a Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace. What stories can you share that showcase that that is who He really is (Where have you witnessed Him being a Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace)?

What has been the byproduct of me trying to define God myself rather than allowing Him to show me who He is really is? (What have I missed out on?)

How can I cultivate a life of seeing God as a Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace?
